

SW82 AMMONITE

CHARTER

PATRICK WYNN

British

Languages: English

Previous yachts: SY Camilla (21m Custom Luca Brenta Design, SY Bristolian (29m CNB) - SY Eve of St Mawes (15.5m Luke Powell) - Farr 40 – Moorings and Sunsail Flottillas

Patrick is an enthusiastic sailor and a very conscientious captain who prides himself on creating an excellent rapport with his guests. With more than a decade of professional sailing experience, he has navigated all the main yachting destinations in Europe, the Caribbean and the USA. His keen eye for detail and an impeccable understanding of the Guests’ expectations have gained him a great reputation as an attentive and capable captain that aims to provide his guests with a relaxed and safe environment, even in the most challenging situations. Prior to joining Ammonite, Patrick accumulated a wealth of experience on a variety of sailing yachts from modern racers to classic gaff-rigged yachts. His most recent superyacht appointments were as Captain and engineer aboard the 21m Luca Brenta designed ‘Camilla’ and the 29m German Frers designed Bristolian. A passionate sailor and rower; when not on the water, he enjoys skiing, walking and music.

Licences & Certificates:

RYA/MCA Yachtmaster Offshore, RYA Ocean Shorebased, AEC MCA Engine Course, GMDSS General, RYA Powerboat Level II, STCW 95, Proficiency in First Aid, Proficiency in Medical Care, Security Awareness, ENG1.

Education:

Seven GCSE's from Lincoln Minster School.

JOHN (JACK) WHATSON

British

Languages: English and Spanish

Previous Yachts: S/Y Firebird – Oyster 885, S/Y Mikado – 47m Ketch, S/Y Asahi – 56m Perini Navi, S/Y Tilakkhana – 20m Wally, S/Y Better Place – 50m Wally, S/Y Elegre – TP52, S/Y Starry Night – 24m Oyster, S/Y Ngoni – 58m Royal Huisman, S/Y Red Dragon – 52m Alloy Yachts, S/Y Shadow – 33m Sloop, S/Y Ono No No – Grand Soleil 46

A passionate and experienced sailor, Jack brings over a decade of professional yachting experience and more than 100,000 nautical miles under his belt. With five Atlantic crossings and a Pacific passage from Tahiti to Chile, his deep-sea expertise is remarkable. Jack is a calm and competent leader on deck, with a strong technical understanding and an eye for safety, maintenance, and seamless guest experiences. He thrives in dynamic sailing programs and has proven himself across a range of performance yachts and expedition-style cruising—most recently navigating through the Patagonian fjords, Falkland Islands, and delivering vessels across ocean routes. Outside of sailing, Jack is an active and adventurous soul. He enjoys watersports, golf, skydiving, and swimming, and has a creative side too—often found playing the piano when off duty. His positive attitude and enthusiasm for the outdoors bring a great energy to the team and guests alike.

SABRINA GALIA

Italian

Languages: Italian, English, French, Spanish, Portuguese

Previous Yachts: S/Y Maverik (Solaris 80), S/Y Spirit (72'), Dream Carolina (Lagoon 62), S/Y Y.O.L. (Vallicelli 68'), S/Y Shaula (50'), S/Y Bandolero (Swan 77'), S/Y Alula (60'), S/Y Bavaria (50')

Sabrina is a versatile and experienced Cook/Stew with over 5 years in yachting and 10+ years in hospitality. She brings a positive attitude, strong organizational skills, and adapts easily onboard, ensuring smooth operations and a welcoming guest experience. Her cuisine is rooted in Mediterranean and Italian traditions, focusing on fresh, seasonal ingredients and simple, balanced dishes—perfect for a refined yet relaxed sailing lifestyle. She also incorporates Japanese-fusion influences inspired by her time in Japan, adding creativity and light, modern flavors to her menus. Comfortable in a dual role, Sabrina supports both interior service and deck operations, making her a valuable all-round crew member.

SW82

AMMONITE

